

Two Brief Excerpts from God's Kingdom:

“On the earliest maps of Vermont, the wilderness that would later become Kingdom County was referred to as ‘Territory But Little Known.’ The first settlers called it ‘God’s Kingdom,’ to suggest the wild and unspoiled character of this last New England frontier.”

The Reverend Doctor Pliny Templeton

“God’s Kingdom? I thought they called it that because only God would want the place.”

Editor Charles Kinneson
The Kingdom County Monitor